

News Release

05, July, 2019

Nippon Paint Automotive coatings inaugurated a new manufacturing plant in Czech

Nippon Paint Automotive Coatings Co., Ltd. (Head office: Hirakata-City, Osaka, President: Shoichi Mure) has opened a new manufacturing facility for the production of automotive coatings in the town of Kolin, Czech Republic. Started its construction in the industrial zone of Ovcary in 2017, the new plant, Nippon Paint Automotive Coatings (Czech) s.r.o , finally completed its construction. Guests including the Ambassador of Japan to the Czech Republic, Mayor of Kolin, and Director of CzechInvest attended the opening ceremony on June 24 2019, celebrating its opening and praying for continuous safety.

Nippon Paint Automotive Coatings is a leading global company dedicated to vehicle coating. The new plant enables us to supply customers Electro-Deposition coatings and we have in the opportunities for growth in Europe.

【New factory outline】

Site area	5,000 m <sup>2</sup>
Production Item	Electro-Deposition resins for Automotive Coating
Production Capacity	9,600 ton / year

【Opening ceremony】

End